Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your request made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 1987. Your request for all correspondence on the subject of environmental hypersensitivity during the years 1985 to 1991 to or from specific offices, was opened by our office on June 3, 1991. File number 91140-MOH has been given to this request and this number should be used in any future reference to your file.

As a result of Ministry reorganizations, some of the offices you requested searched are now titled as follows:

1. Assistant Deputy Minister of Community and Public Health, now:
Assistant Deputy Minister of Community and Support Services
2. Director of the Policy Analysis and Research Branch, now:
Director of the Training and Research Branch, and;
Director of the Policy Co-ordination Branch
3. Assistant Deputy Minister, Administration, Finance and Health Insurance, now:
Assistant Deputy Minister, Corporate Affairs, and;
Assistant Deputy Minister, Health Insurance Division
4. Assistant Deputy Minister, Institutional Health: NO CHANGE
5. Physician Manager, Disease Control and Epidemiology Service, now:
Disease Control Service and the Epidemiology Unit, Public Health Branch
6. Deputy Minister of Health: NO CHANGE

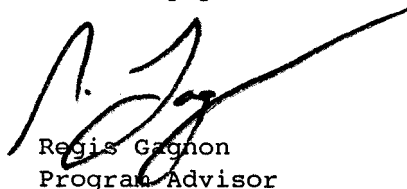

Please be advised that a search will be conducted in all of the above areas for records responsive to your request.

The Act provides a time limit of 30 calendar days for the processing of a request. You will be contacted by July 2, 1991 with a decision.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 1987, allows fees to be charged for processing applications, and a fee schedule has been established across the government under Section 57 of the Act. You will be informed of the cost of processing your request where your fee is in excess of $5.00, and a deposit may be required where fees are in excess of $50.00.

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning your request.

Sincerely yours,

Régis Gagnon
Program Advisor
